

Curtain antenna with eight parallel-fed dipoles, 20M for special event.

Pioneer Missionary Radio Station
HCJB celebrating 60 years of broadcasting

HCJB, Box 17-01-00691,
Quito, Ecuador

QSL
690 kHz

HCJB
Casilla 17-01-691
Quito, Ecuador

Dear Jerry Berg:

This confirms your reception of HCJB on November 5, 1995
at 06:14 UTC on 690 kHz mediumwave.
Transmitter power was 50 kw.

DX Test #5

Congratulations and 73!
The key for the excellent report of hope!

DX Test Coordinator

Andean moonrise over Quito, Ecuador's capital city

HCJB's 690 kHz transmitter is located on the slopes of Pichincha
Volcano on Quito's western border.

HCJB Quito, Ecuador

HC1JB

HCJB Ham-group, Box 691, Quito, Ecuador, S.A.

RADIO	DATE	UTC	ORG	2x	RST	24 hr Quad
SWL	June 83	0010	3, 5, 7	558		new radio reflector
E. PROVENCER	83	12	14, 21	CW		1/4A vertical
ANDEA

TO: Jerry Berg

We wish to thank you for your reception report. We have found it correct and hereby acknowledge it with this verification card.

Date: 1 May 2004 Time UTC: 11:30 Frequency kHz: 155.30

We appreciate your interest in our programs and invite you to write again.

20th Anniversary Special Program May 1, 2004 Japanese Service

NATIONAL THEATER "SUICIDE"
The Suizo Theater of German neoclassical architecture is located in downtown Quito. The theater opened on November 25, 1886 and is still much in use.

"In the presence of fullness of joy...there are pleasures forever." Psalm 16:11

HCJB WORLD RADIO

Cart Cole - Radio Director

B - 2004 May - June

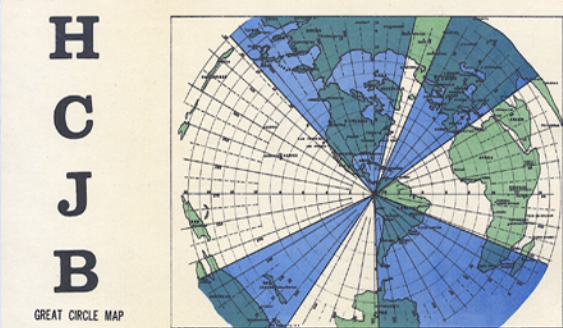

Photo by Diane Biskley

SAYING GOOD-BY TO OLD FRIENDS

CLAYTON HOWARD HELEN HOWARD

HCJB MISSIONARY for 43 years, ANDEA FOUNDER and DX PARTY LINE HOST for 22 years...Clayton Howard and his wife, Helen, leave Quito, Ecuador, in July to retire in the United States. Their address will be 20 Westlake Drive, Orange City, Florida 32763, USA.

They say FAREWELL and THANK YOU for all the friendships they have with DXers all over the world. Their concern is best expressed in Philipian 3:10... "that you might know Christ..."

DX PARTY LINE will continue after the Howards leave, so stay tuned in. In the Americas, listen on Tuesday on 15,155 or 9,745 at 0230 or 0630 UTC or on Sunday on 11,910, 9,745 or 6,095 at the same times. (NOTE that both day and time are UTC.) In Europe, listen on Monday or Saturday on 21,477.5, 17,790 or 15,295 at 2130 UTC. In the South Pacific, it is broadcast on Monday and Saturday on 11,925, 9,745 or 6,130 at 0930 UTC.

REMEMBER ANDEA...ANDES DXers INTERNATIONAL is a shortwave club sponsored by Radio Station HCJB. If you are not already a member, write for membership details to ANDEA, Casilla 691, Quito, Ecuador.

(Printed in Ecuador by the Imprenta Vozandes-June, 1984)

To: Edward Provencer

Thank you for your report of DX Partyline's Special Call-In Program in honour of Clayton and Helen Howard's 50th Anniversary. All details were correct and we confirm your reception with this QSL card.

September 12, 1992 from 0730 to 0830 UTC.
X September 13, 1992 from 0230 to 0330 UTC.
Frequency: 9745 kHz

Sincerely,
Richard DeVos
DX Partyline

"Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres."
1 Corinthians 13:7

